

Changing Education to Change the World

A lecture by Claudio Naranjo, M.D. Dr. Naranjo is the author of more than twenty books, including the widely influential Character and Neurosis. An Integrative View, which broadly disseminated the idea of the enneagram of personality types, The Enneagram of Society: Healing the Soul to Heal the World, The Way of Silence and the Talking Cure, On Meditation and Psychotherapy, The End of Patriarchy and the Dawning of a Tri-une Society, and Healing Civilization. He is the founder of SAT Institute, an integrative psycho-spiritual school.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 2014
6:30 - 8:30 P.M.
155 Dwinelle Hall
University of California,
Berkeley

Dr. Naranjo will argue that the root of world problems, such as inequality, exploitation, and repressive moralism, is patriarchy, and that we can only transcend patriarchy by transforming the individual patriarchal mind. Only through a new education oriented to the balance of patristic, matristic, and child values can we achieve this. He will share from four decades of explorations in transformative education his ideas concerning global educational reform that prioritizes individual and social evolution over production.

Sponsored by:
The Chicana/o Latina/o Studies Program
The Center for Latin American Studies
The Graduate Student Assembly
The Haas Institute for a Fair and Inclusive Society